AN EXTRA GUEST

FOR CHRISTMAS

Holly in the window, turkey in the oven, presents weighting down the glittering tree, Christmas cheer in the air!

Can't you make room for one more guest in your Christmas heart—especially if it happens to be a little child whose eyes are big and lonesome, and whose little body looks as if it had been hungry for a good long time?

For just 10 cents you can feed the hungry stomach of such a child on Christmas day. For $3 you can care for it for the whole of the Christmas month. And if you can dig down in your Christmas pocket-book and pull out $36.50 all in one lump, you can be godparent to a little boy or girl for a whole year, being put in touch with it through correspondence.

What kind of a child? Well, what do you think about a little ten-year-old boy who for three years worked every day from sunup to sundown, sawing up branches of trees for fuel? He must support one crippled leg with a huge stone while he worked. One end of the huge cross-cut saw was pressed against his tiny chest, the other braced against the ground, as with outstretched arms he drew toward him the branches which were to make fuel and earn 30 cents a week for himself and an old grandfather.

Or how about a little six-year-old girl who, when the Germans carried away every boy baby from her town, was thrown to the pavement by a burly German when she proved to be a girl? She is permanently crippled. Her mother was taken away by the Germans, her father was killed in the war.

These are just two of the 3,000,000 French orphans of the war. They are being taken care of now, but thousands of others are without help or friendship. All are fatherless, many have lost their mothers, either taken away by the Germans or dead from exposure, privations, or in the bombardments. The Fatherless Children of France, an American organization co-operating with a similar one in France of which Marshal Joffre is the head, is trying to furnish American aid to the extent of ten cents a day per child, to all of the tiny pension the French Government has been able to grant orphans of the war. Every cent contributed for a child goes directly to it. Not one penny is used either in this country or in France for any other purpose; the expenses of the work are borne by generous friends.

Can't you add one of these children to your Christmas list? Not only the money but your friendship will mean to such a child a new belief in the Providence of God, a new love and thankfulness, and will help to wipe out the memories of horror and suffering and the unthinkable atrocities which these children have witnessed.

To become a "godparent" to a child, or to make a Christmas donation, write to Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, Chairman of the Special Campaign Committee of this organization, who will mail a booklet of translated letters from some of the little children already helped, to anyone who will send a stamped, self-addressed envelope of business size to her at Room 928 410 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

LUNATICS AND MILLIONAIRES

According to a report from a traveler in Germany, which appears in the Chicago Tribune, the peasants in the occupied sector liked the Americans, but regarded them as lunatics and millionaires. The peasants told me, said the traveler, that you might never know that an American was mad unless a fly came into the room. When the American sees a fly, a strange, hard glitter comes into his eyes. Then you see that he is crazy. His mania makes him want to hit the fly. He holds up newspapers and tips them over behind the fly and strikes at it with great viciousness. If it does not die, he pursues it and calls in more soldiers and strikes at it again.

Some German farmers are willing to make allowances. They say that probably in America flies are large and their bite causes instant death; therefore Americans have formed the habit of killing all the flies they see. But another proof that Americans are stark, raving mad is that they open their windows at night and let in the deadly night air, which every German peasant knows is poisonous. They say that, according to American soldiers, it is one of President Wilson's fourteen points that all Germans must have their windows open at night. Some think this proves that the Americans want to kill the Germans off with consumption; others think it shows that Wilson is as mad as the rest of the Americans.

Should Be Quarantined.

Many physicians believe that anyone who has a bad cold should be completely isolated to prevent other members of the family and associates from contracting the disease, as colds are about as catching as measles. One thing sure—the sooner one rids himself of a cold the less the danger, and you will look a good while before you find a better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to aid you in curing a cold. Obtainable everywhere.

In the Matter of the Petition of J. H. Tetley and other Freeholders to the Number of over Four Hundred.

Whereas, on the 8th day of October, 1919, a petition signed by J. H. Tetley and other freeholders of St. Francois County, Missouri, to the number of over four hundred, was presented to the Court praying that the Court call a special election in St. Francois County, and at said special election to submit to the qualified voters of said county the question whether there shall be levied upon the assessed valuation of the property of said County a tax for a period of time not exceeding twenty years, and to be for the issue of County Bonds to provide funds for the purchase of a site, and the erection thereon of a public hospital and hospital buildings, and for the support of the same, or to purchase suitable property with buildings already erected thereon. Said hospital to be located in the City of Farmington, Missouri, and the maximum amount of money to be expended in purchasing of building said hospital shall not exceed $25,000.00. The consideration of said petition was continued until Monday, November 3rd, 1919.

Now, on this 3rd day of November, 1919, the above matter again coming on to be heard, the Court examines said petition and finds that the same is signed by more than one hundred resident freeholders of said St. Francois County, Missouri; and that more than fifty of the signers thereto being resident freeholders not residents of the City of Farmington, the City in said County where it is proposed to locate said Hospital.

It is therefore considered, ordered and adjudged by the County Court of St. Francois County, Missouri, that a special election be held, and the same is hereby called, at all of the usual voting precincts within St. Francois County, Missouri, on the Twenty-First Day of February, 1920, for the purpose of voting upon the question whether there shall be levied upon the assessed property of St. Francois County a tax of ONE MILL ON THE DOLLAR for the purchase of a site for hospital purposes and the erection thereon of a public hospital and hospital buildings, and for the support of said public hospital, or for the purchase of a suitable property for said hospital with buildings already erected and for the support of said hospital, and for the payment of bonds issued for said purposes.

It is further ordered that the notice of said election shall be published for ninety days prior to the same in The Farmington Times, a newspaper published in Farmington, St. Francois County, Missouri, and Lead Belt News, a newspaper published in Flat River, St. Francois County, Missouri.

It is further ordered by the Court that the ballots to be used at said election at which the said hospital question is submitted shall be printed with the following statement thereon:

For a One Mill Tax for a Bond Issue for a Public Hospital and for Maintenance of the same.

☐ YES.

☐ NO.

Mark the one you want thus: X in the little square.

It is further ordered that the said election shall be conducted and canvassed in the same manner as the vote for county officers.

State of Missouri, County of St. Francois, ss.
I, Marvin W. Crowder, Clerk of the County Court within and for the County and State aforesaid, do hereby certify the above and foregoing to be a true and correct copy from the record of said court relating to the matter of calling a special election for the purpose of voting upon the question of levying a one mill tax on the assessed property of St. Francois County for the purposes therein named.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court at my office in Farmington, Mo., this 10th day (SEAL) day of November, 1919.

MARVIN W. CROWDER,
